Extremism Only Fight for Liberty

— Goldwater

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, in a bid for party unity, says the "extremism" he advocated in defense of liberty could be paraphrased as "wholehearted devotion" to the cause of liberty.

The Republican presidential candidate, in his July 16 speech accepting the nomination, said: "I would remind you that extremism in the defense of liberty is no vice. And let me remind you also that moderation in the pursuit of justice is no virtue."

Various prominent Republicans have urged the Arizona senator to elaborate on his use of the word "extremism."

In a letter to former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, which Nixon made public Sunday, Goldwater said: "If I were to paraphrase the two sentences in question in the context in which I uttered them I would do it by saying that wholehearted devotion to liberty is unassailable and that half-hearted devotion to justice is indefensible."

This was the concluding paragraph of the 550-word letter written, Nixon said, in response to a letter he sent to Goldwater on Aug. 4.

Goldwater said that "misunderstandings must not be permitted to stand in the way of the unity of principle and purpose that is essential to a Republican victory in November."

Goldwater further wrote: "One portion of that correct context — and a most important one — was the paragraph immediately preceding the two sentences in question."

"In it I urged that we resist becoming captives of 'unthinking labels' — most of all those coined with divisive intent by Communism."

President of Italy Removed

ROME (AP) — The Italian Senate declared ailing President Antonio Segni incapacitated today and named Senate President Cesare Merzagora to take over his duties. A medical bulletin said Segni was gravely ill.

The transfer of authority to the 66-year-old Senate president, under provision of the Italian Constitution, was announced in the government's official Gazette 2 1/2 hours after attending physicians made public the gravity of Segni's condition. He was felled by a cerebral stroke three days ago. He is partly paralyzed and his speech has been impeded.

A medical bulletin this morning was the first official announcement that the 73-year-old president had been left partly paralyzed by the stroke.

Segni was elected May 6, 1962, for a 7-year term. The Italian presidency is largely a ceremonial post.

Barry Names to Help in House Races

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thorton B. Morton said today he thinks Sen. Barry Goldwater's name at the head of the Republican ticket will bring substantial GOP gain in the Senate and House.

Morton, Kentucky Republican who heads his party's Senatorial Campaign Committee, said this might be particularly true in the South, the border states, the Midwest and the West.

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson of Washington, head of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, said in a separate interview he believes that Goldwater's statements about "extremism" and on other issues will bring a record number of Democrats to the polls.

"If we can get out a heavy Democratic vote, it will help all of our candidates," Magnuson said. "I think that a lot of Democrats are going to turn out to make sure that Goldwater isn't elected and doesn't carry conservatives into office with him."

The Democrats, who now have a 66-33 margin in the Senate, have 26 seats at stake in the November balloting. There are nine Republican seats up for grabs.

Despite some public claims to the contrary, neither party expects any change in Senate control. The Democrats believe they will about hold their own. Republicans privately hope to gain from three to four seats.

In the House, which Democrats control 254-177, with four vacancies, there may be a substantial turnover in personnel but few observers believe the standings of the parties will be altered materially.

Mississippi Dead Marked by Parade

By HILMI TOROS
NEW YORK (AP) — Joined hand to hand and chanting "we shall overcome," thousands of white and Negro mourners paid tribute Sunday night to two white civil rights workers slain in Mississippi.

In separate services and at an outdoor rally, the young men were eulogized as "martyrs, compassionate and totally committed to nonviolence."

The FBI discovered the bodies of the New Yorkers — Andrew Goodman, 20, and Michael Schwerner, 24, — and James Chaney, 21, a Negro from Meridian, Miss., last Tuesday in a grave near Philadelphia, Miss. The trio vanished near Philadelphia June 21 at the beginning of a summer drive to register Negroes to vote.

At the memorial service for Schwerner at the Community Church in Manhattan, James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, said, "One of the tragedies of our world is that evil societies kill their conscience and gentlefolk."

Earlier, Farmer had announced the appointment of Rita Schwerner, Michael's widow, as a field secretary for CORE. She will help establish a memorial community center in Meridian, Miss., Farmer said.

Another speaker, John Lewis, chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, said the "question is not who killed Mickey, James and Andy, but what killed them."

"Apathy," he said. At the end of the memorial service, thousands inside and outside the hall joined hands and softly sang the civil rights theme: "We shall overcome, someday."

Earlier, at the funeral for Goodman at the Ethical Culture Society, Ralph Engelman, Goodman's college mate from Queens, said: "Andy taught us an old truth: None is free until all are free."

Leaving the service with Goodman's body in an oak casket, Mrs. Robert Goodman, his mother, clasped the hand of Chaney's mother, Fannie, who attended both services.

Chaney was buried Friday in Meridian.

Old Mother Earth Is Fat Lady in Tight Girdle — Subject to Stretch: Boyle

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Matches start more fires, kill more people, cause more property damage than volcanoes.

Mother earth lives in eternal restlessness. She is like a fat lady with a tight girdle. Every day there is an average of 85 earthquakes, most of them harmless.

We seek to land on the moon before we have freed our own globe from the tyranny of ignorance and the fringe benefits of science. For example, despite the local popularity of the electric light bulb, most of the world's population is illuminated by the candle and the fireplace.

On the other hand, our choice of change at home is increased year by year. The best super-markets now carry at least 6,000 items.

One of the biggest but least-known causes of private melancholy is that people wear shoes too tight for their feet. You can't feel free in the head if your tootsies hurt. Walking with the Army infantry taught me that most of my life I had been wearing a shoe half a size too short — 9 1/2 instead of 10.

This reminds me of the new joke about why the fellow wore pointed shoes. "They are a great help in stamping out cockroaches in corners," he explained learnedly.

It also reminds me of an old joke — I believe it belongs to George Ade — about the shrewd advantage of wearing white shoes: "They don't show frost."

The first living U.S. president to have his likeness on an American coin was Calvin Coolidge. He and George Washington were portrayed on one side of the 1926 sesquicentennial half-dollar, now a collector's item. Only 141,120 of the coins were minted.

Congress to Wind Up in Two Weeks

By EDMOND LEBRETON
WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress pushes ahead today in drive to clear the legislative decks and adjourn by the end of next week.

The target date for adjournment is Aug. 22 — two days before the Democratic National Convention opens in Atlantic City, N.J.

Mike Mansfield said Sunday night in a television-radio interview (NBC-Meet The Press) that he still hopes for adjournment by the 22nd, but added "I wouldn't bet on it."

If Congress doesn't finish its work by that date, he said, it will be back on the job after the convention.

Mansfield said "I am very proud of what this Congress and its predecessor have done." Asked about help from the Republican side of the aisle, he said "It has been very significant and much of the legislation which we've passed would not have been possible without Republican support."

He said Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen has "placed his country ahead of his party" and contributed particularly in foreign affairs.

Mansfield said he thought Dirksen's proposal to delay Continued on Page Two

Voting Laws to Be Given Close Study

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The formation of an organization to study Arkansas election laws and procedures was announced Saturday by Little Rock attorney John Haley, director of the group.

Haley said the organization would be called the Election Research Council and would have as one specific goal, the revision of the state's election laws.

The organization is non-partisan, Haley said, but its studies and proposed revisions will include primary elections.

The group mailed questionnaires to all Arkansas county clerks, sheriffs and election commissioners Friday asking about the procedure of elections as seen by the officials who conduct them, Haley said.

Among the members of the group's initial board are Rogers attorney Hardy Croxton; Mrs. E. E. Elkins, state president of the League of Women Voters; Sam Levine, a Pine Bluff attorney and Field Wasson, a Siloam Springs banker.

Rep. Vinson Urges South Be 'Loyal'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The big question in this year's presidential race is whether the South will "reward a political enemy and punish an old friend," Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., says.

In a statement released in Washington Sunday, Vinson said this would be the case if the South supports Sen. Barry Goldwater and opposes President Johnson.

He said the question is whether the South will be "blinded by its anger and frustration of the moment regarding its civil rights problems."

Vinson said there have been years "that organized agitators and do-gooder groups have been pushing the current civil rights crisis upon the South."

Johnson and Goldwater have voting records over these years, he said, "and both are poised today in roles almost exactly opposite their official records."

He said Johnson followed the course of all other Southerners "in attempting to stem the storm," while he said Goldwater "followed — the opposite course" and "repeatedly identified himself with proponents for civil rights."

Contending that Goldwater has reversed himself, he asked, "Can it be purely for political expediency?"

Johnson, as a Southerner, "espoused the cause of the South," said Vinson, while "Lyndon Johnson, as President, had no other choice but to reflect the will of a majority of the nation."

"Agony of the moment may well cause Southerners to forget the now more remote agonies of recent years, but this lapse of memory will not change the facts."

U.S. Jets Move North to Meet China Migs; Turks Strike Cyprus

4th Straight Day for Air Strafing

By HAL MCCLURE
NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Two Turkish jet fighters swept over the northwest village of Polis today and strafed an empty square. The brief attack broke an overnight lull in fighting.

Greece said it hoped the attack was due to a mix-up in orders by the Turkish armed forces in view of the U.N. Security Council resolution calling for a cease-fire.

The Cyprus government announced that the Greek Cypriots would fully respect the resolution. A government spokesman said:

"In a statement today, Archbishop Makarios (Cyprus' president) said the government of the Cyprus republic will fully respect a Security Council resolution on the cease-fire in Cyprus."

There were no reports of ground fighting between Greek and Turkish Cypriots in the tense northwest coastal strip between Polis and Xeros.

The Soviet Union assailed the series of Turkish attacks and warned Turkey that it is risking war.

The attack on Polis was the fourth consecutive day of Turkish air activity over Cyprus.

A Greek Cypriot spokesman said there was no word from Polis on whether there were casualties.

Alex Efty, an Associated Press correspondent at the scene, said the American-built F104 jets appeared while the townspeople were sipping coffee in the main square, most of them talking about the crisis. He said the villagers ducked for cover before the jets made two runs, firing into the square.

In Paris, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization disclosed that Turkey was withdrawing some of her air force from the alliance "for use in her national interest."

Stuttgart Shoe Loses Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP) — A National Labor Relations Board trial examiner ruled Saturday that the Stuttgart Shoe Corp. at Stuttgart engaged in unfair labor practices when the United Shoe Workers of America (AFL-CIO) attempted to organize its workers.

Plant employees voted down representation by the union in a NLRB election Dec. 30, 1963.

Trial examiner Benjamin B. Lipton ordered the firm to stop threatening employees that it would discontinue existing benefits, refuse or fail to bargain in good faith or take other reprisals, including job loss, if employees selected any labor organization as their collective bargaining agent.

Cyprus Asks
New Action
by the U.N.

By A. I. GOLDBERG
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — Cyprus asked for another urgent session of the U.N. Security Council today to consider a Turkish air attack this morning on a Cypriot village and what it called a "limited invasion" by Turkish troops.

Council members, weary after two days of urgent sessions, consulted on a time for the meeting.

Cyprus made the request to Ambassador Sivert A. Nielsen of Norway, the council president for August.

The Cypriot delegation claimed the Turks landed military personnel and material from warships between midnight and 4 a.m., Cyprus time.

The air attack was carried out by two Turkish jets on the northwest coastal village of Polis. A Greek Cypriot spokesman in Nicosia said 10 persons were wounded.

Cyprus asked for an urgent session Sunday night but later withdrew it on the basis of what it called "confused" reports from the area.

Nielsen awaited a report from Secretary-General U Thant on the military situation on Cyprus before calling the council into session.

Sunday, the council called for a firm ceasefire on Cyprus after wrestling with the crisis at two urgent sessions over the weekend.

An unofficial truce has gone into effect on the Mediterranean island, but Cypriot and Turkish envoys to the United Nations said their governments reserved the right to use force again if the truce appeared to break down.

The council held a meeting Saturday night that extended past midnight, then went back into session later Sunday morning after Turkish planes launched new death-dealing raids on Cyprus towns.

After numerous delays and haggling over wording, the council directed its president to appeal for a cease-fire by both Greek Cypriot and Turkish Cypriot elements and by Turkey. Then it approved a resolution sponsored by the United States and Britain reinforcing the demand.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson told the council it was exposing itself to ridicule by delays.

Stevenson said the question of trying to apportion blame could be dealt with after the council got hostilities stopped and the commander of the U.N. force in Cyprus, Gen. K. S. Thimayya of India, could report on the events of the last five days.

Air Alert Is Sounded for Saigon

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U. S. Jet fighters equipped with air to air missiles have been heading toward the Communist north the past few days to meet the threat of approaching Red Chinese MIG planes, U.S. military sources say.

"Though no clashes have taken place, the opposing flights were reported close enough to make positive radar identification, the sources added."

Saigon, capital of South Viet Nam, held an air raid alert Sunday, its first since World War II when U.S. planes bombed the Japanese-occupied city.

Communist propaganda organs renewed charges against the United States for its reprisal action against North Viet Nam last week. And North Viet Nam indicated it was rejecting a U.N. Security Council invitation to take part in a debate on the crisis.

Informants said the Chinese MIGs, flying from Hainan Island across the Gulf of Tonkin, halted short of the heavily-reinforced frontier and U.S. naval units in the South China Sea. The American planes were F102 fighters from the Da Nang Air Base and Navy F4 and F8 jets from the U.S. 7th Fleet.

Some 30 U.S. jets moved into position Saturday to meet a possible Communist thrust, sources said.

Communist China said Sunday that the U.S. raid on North Viet Nam gives Peking "the right to take action" in "every possible form" to help the North Vietnamese regime.

preme Allied Headquarters for Europe said "such action is permissible and provided for under the NATO treaty." The United States, Britain and other NATO members have been strenuously pressing for a settlement of the Cyprus strife to avoid an open breach between Turkey and Greece, guardians of NATO's eastern flank.

The alliance's permanent council was summoned into special session today to take up the Cyprus crisis for the third time in six days.

A U.S. Air Force C130 cargo plane evacuated 35 American dependents and members of the U.S. Embassy staff to Beirut from Nicosia. Among them were Ambassador Taylor Belcher's wife and two teen-age sons.

A spokesman said the State Department ordered the evacuation.

In Athens, Greek Foreign Minister Stavros Costopoulos called in the Turkish ambassador and said Greece could not restrain the Cyprus government from "necessary defensive measures" if Turkey repeated its warlike activities.

Costopoulos said he told the Turkish envoy that Greece hoped the attack on Polis was "due to the fact that not all Turkish forces have received orders of a cease-fire."

Earlier, the Greek Cypriots charged that Turkish troops slipped ashore before dawn to aid the beleaguered Turkish Cypriot fishing village of Kokkina, 20 miles west of Polis.

Turkey and the U.N. Command on Cyprus denied there had been any landing. But the Cyprus government demanded another urgent meeting of the Security Council to consider what it called "perhaps a limited invasion."

Costopoulos said the Turkish garrison at Kokkina, the last Turkish Cypriot coastal stronghold, opened mortar fire on Greek Cypriot positions during the morning. But other sources said the situation there was quiet.

Turkey began the attacks last Friday to halt the Greek Cypriot advance on Kokkina.

Archbishop Makarios, the Greek Cypriot president, said his government will "fully respect" the Security Council appeal. He issued the statement after the latest Turkish raid and his government's report of the troop landing at Kokkina.

In Ankara, Kemal Stair, Turkey's deputy premier, insisted that the "Cyprus government claims are without any foundation."

The new Greek Cypriot complaint came in the midst of a lull in the fighting on the Mediterranean island. President Makarios offered to halt the Greek Cypriot advance on the Turkish Cypriot villages if Turkey stopped its air attacks.

Turkey agreed to call off the raids if there are no further Greek Cypriot attacks.

The Security Council implored all sides to observe an immediate cease-fire. Only the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia abstained in the 9-0 vote by which the council adopted a U.S.-British resolution calling for cessation of hostilities.

A U.N. source disclosed that Makarios had reacted favorably to an earlier cease-fire appeal by the council's president, Sivert A. Nielsen of Norway.

The Greek Cypriots announced the landing of Turkish men and material after the third day of attacks by Turkish jet fighters on the northwest coast. Turkish warships still are patrolling off Cyprus.

Sixty-four Turkish jets pounded Greek Cypriot positions with bombs, rockets and machinegun fire, as heavy fighting flared on the ground around the village of Kokkina, stronghold on the Cyprus coast.

The Greek Cypriots claimed they suffered about 300 casualties, including more than 33 dead, in the Turkish raids. Turkey said its planes fired only on military targets.

A Greek Cypriot statement said the Turkish soldiers were landed from two Turkish destroyers.

It called the alleged landings "continued incitement and encouragement of the Turkish (Cypriot) rebellion" and evidence of Turkey's disregard of the Security Council's peace appeals.

The U.N. police force said its observation team in the area had spotted one small unidentified vessel off Kokkina. The commander of the Swedish contingent, Col. Jonas Waern, said he saw "some activity" near the fishing village but couldn't learn the details.

The latest crisis caused feverish activity in several capitals. President Johnson hurried back to Washington from a weekend at his Texas ranch and sent personal appeals to the heads of the Turkish, Greek and Cypriot governments.

The United States pressed for withdrawal of an estimated 5,000 to 7,000 Greek and Turkish soldiers who have quietly entered Cyprus since the dispute flared up last December over Makarios' attempts to end the legislative veto of the Turkish Cypriot minority.

A U.S. 6th Fleet carrier task force abruptly sailed from Naples Sunday night for an undisclosed destination. The force consisted of the carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt, the guided missile cruiser Boston and six destroyers.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev warned the Turks that their military action could "only make the situation more acute, increase the conflict and increase the danger of war."

The Moscow press called Turkey a "pirate" and an "aggressor."

Khrushchev made no mention of a Greek Cypriot request for Soviet aid either in his note to Turkish Premier Ismet Inonu or similar messages to Makarios and U.N. Secretary-General U Thant.

The Soviet leader told Makarios that the Soviet Union supported the Greek Cypriots and urged the withdrawal of all foreign troops from the island.

To Thant, Khrushchev said: "At this moment, the U.N. must do its best to stop the bloodshed in Cyprus and thus avert the development of events dangerous to the cause of peace."

Greece, Turkey's eastern Mediterranean partner in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, sent a squadron of air force planes over Cyprus for the Greek Cypriots.

Stavros Costopoulos, Greek foreign minister, said the planes did not open fire on Turkish Cypriots, but warned of Greek reprisals if the Turks continue their sorties.

"If America does not do something about the worsening Cyprus situation, Greece will be forced to interfere," Costopoulos said after an emergency conference with Norbert L. Anshuetz, J. S. charged affairs in Athens. The U.S. official was summoned twice to Premier George Papandreu's office Sunday.

In Paris, NATO Secretary-General Manlio Brosio met separately with the Greek and Turkish delegates after the Greek government protested the Turkish attacks to the Atlantic alliance.

British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home broke off a vacation in Scotland to assume command of his government's diplomatic activities on the Cyprus crisis.

Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson conferred by telephone with President Johnson. Canada has 1,000 troops on Cyprus.

Gunfire between Greek and Turkish Cypriots broke out in Nicosia, capital of Cyprus, Sunday night along the capital's so-called "green line" separating the two sides. Two Greek Cypriots were killed and at least three Turkish Cypriots were wounded.

reapportionment of state legislatures stands a good chance of Senate passage.

The Democratic leader said he had been in touch with Dirksen and legal advisers over the weekend trying to work out other way to ease the effects of the Supreme Court's decision of last June 15 which said each legislative district must be "substantially equal" in population. It said both houses of state legislatures must be apportioned on a "one person, one vote formula."

Dirksen in turn came up with a bill that would delay reapportionment for two years for some states, four years for others. He said he would include it as a rider on the foreign aid authorization bill. Mansfield said he doesn't believe Dirksen's approach on the delay "is the correct one" and "may well turn out" to be unconstitutional.

While the Senate continues its foreign aid debate today, the House takes up a bill to liberalize veterans' pension laws. The House may tackle a housing bill about the middle of the week. The measure would extend the present public housing program for another year and increase it by 35,000 housing units.

The House also is scheduled this week to decide whether to try working out a compromise on a Senate-passed measure to set strict quotas on imported fuel of the effect on U.S. negotiations for freer access to European markets for agricultural products, opposes the quota plan.

Supporters of a health care plan for the aged under Social Security continue to press their case before the Senate Finance Committee. There will be an effort to attach this program to the pending Social Security bill. But any such move, even if successful in the Senate, would face formidable opposition from House conferees.

The Senate also has on its calendar some $7 billion in appropriations bills for agricultural programs and military construction and the program to attack the economic problems of the Appalachian area.

organ of the Chinese Communist party, said in an editorial quoted in a radio broadcast: "U.S. aggressors, don't you rejoice too soon. Don't think you can get away with your surprise attack on the democratic Republic of Viet Nam. To tell you frankly, the debt in blood you owe the Vietnamese people must be repaid."

The U.S. air strike on North Viet Nam's shore bases last Wednesday was in retaliation for North Vietnamese PT boat attacks on U.S. 7th Fleet destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin.

The U.N. Security Council has no right to examine "the clash between the United States and North Viet Nam," a statement by the North Vietnamese foreign ministry declared.

North Viet Nam's official newspapers Nhan Dan, said: "Our people will never be duped by the U.S. imperialists who intend to use the United Nations to execute their plan of slander against our country."

North Viet Nam's army command charged that two U.S. reconnaissance planes flew over Red soil Sunday. It protested to the International Control Commission which is responsible for supervising the Geneva agreement.

HONG KONG (AP) — A Communist newspaper today published a picture of the U.S. pilot it said had been shot down last week during the U.S. raid on North Viet Nam's torpedo-boat bases.

The newspaper Wen Wei Po identified the pilot as Lt. (j.g.) Everett Alvarez Jr. of San Jose, Calif. It carried the picture on a U.S. Navy identification card bearing Alvarez's signature to Saigon. Officials said Joseph W. Granger, 39, Sumter, S.C., was stopped by the Viet Cong while riding in a jeep with a Filipino technician and a Vietnamese sugar plantation director.

Granger was the first civilian U.S. official to be captured by the Viet Cong.

gether with a shot of a wrecked plane the newspaper said had been piloted by Alvarez.

Officials of North Viet Nam had said earlier that Alvarez had been captured, but publication of the picture of his identification card was the first concrete evidence supporting the statement. The picture's caption said the plane had been downed near Hanoi.

The Pentagon in Washington had listed Alvarez, 26, as one of two U.S. pilots missing after the attack.

New Church Perspective

Huntington, Va. — Church denominations can no longer be concerned only with their own affairs, the Rev. Dr. John Coveney Smith of the United Presbyterian Church told a meeting here. "We are living in a new kind of world," he said, in which "the Christian church has become a world-wide Christian community."

POP'S FLING
By Guy W. Von Schrlitz

Fluffing up like an indignant banty hen, my mother glared at my father. "Well, Old Man, where under the sun have you been all day?" she demanded. "Searing the daylight out of everybody."

Without a word he placed a package he carried on the table near my teacup, took off his hat and coat and hung them up. Seating himself by the package, he nodded complacently at my mother and asked casually, "Would it be safe in your present state of hostility to suggest that some tea might ease the strain?"

Then the old imp winked broadly at me. All apprehension swamped in fresh indignation at his levity, my mother arose to her feet and started for him. I stopped her in her tracks. "Nope, Mom," I suggested apologetically. "Hold it. I think he's got a story to tell us."

"Well!" she pulled away, glaring at him, but backing to ward her chair. "It better be a good story. Searing us..."

"No story," he shook his head. "I've just been to the picture show."

"You at a picture show?" She didn't believe him. Neither did I. "Why you haven't been to a picture show since you plinked a banjo for the silent movies."

"Well, I did," he declared. "I first went to a house to see a woman I know."

"A woman?" She scowled. "What woman?"

He brushed the question aside, sugaring the tea I'd poured when she pointedly failed to do so. "You made me mad, woman, this morning," he began again. "So mad I coulda cuffed you..."

"You just try it," she flared. "Just once you try it. Why I'd..."

"Aw my foot!" in disgust. "I'm not fussing at you. I'm trying to tell you."

"Well then," she settled back "tell it and quit your bragging and threatening. I don't aim to stand for..." her voice trailed off into silence.

"As I said, I was mad," he started afresh, "and wanted to talk to somebody. Somebody who didn't fly off the handle every word I..."

"Huh!" she rumbled, eyes darting at him. "They weren't paying any attention to me and I didn't exactly know what to make of it. In the first place, Pop wasn't exactly a Beau Brummel. He might have been handsome when he was younger, but that was quite a long time ago, by my standards."

"And I wanted to talk to somebody that didn't think everything was a dadburned lie," he added.

"Is that what you told her?" Mom asked. She would wait to hear it all before deciding how Addison said it.

Travelers in Double Win Over O. C.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas utilized a three-hit shutout batting attack to down Oklahoma City here Sunday in a Pacific Coast League baseball doubleheader.

Arkansas won the opener 3-0 and took the nightcap 8-6, even though Oklahoma City rapped four homers. Both were seven-inning games.

The double triumph put Arkansas 5 1/2 games in front of Oklahoma City, the second team in the Eastern Division of the PCL. The Travelers took three games in a four-game series with the 89ers.

In the first game Costen Shockley slammed homer No. 27 and Bill Heath homered, both in the second inning. Bill Sorrell doubled in Heath in the fifth. Oklahoma City could get only three singles off Locke.

The second game was a seesaw home run battle.

Arkansas got two runs in the first inning on three singles and a sacrifice fly. The 89ers tied it up in the second on a two-run homer by Gary Rushing, and went ahead in the third when Rusty Staub and Jim Beauchamp hit back-to-back homers.

Arkansas bounced back in the fourth. Bobby Malkmus doubled, bringing in Lee Elia; then Fred Walters put one out of the park for two RBIs.

Staub homered again in the fifth inning to tie the game. In the bottom of the fifth, a former 89er, Howie Goss, slapped a two-run homer and Elia hit a solo homer.

Oklahoma City got one run in the sixth on a single by Glen Vaughan, a walk and two fielders' choices.

Fergie Jenkins pushed his mad she would get.

"That was part of what I told her," Pop said. He was living dangerously and he knew it. "What else?"

The old fool went right on and told her.

"I told her I had woman troubles and didn't know what to do."

"Her! Her! Who's the hussy?" He ignored her question. "She seemed to understand. Said she and her husband had spats too at times and the best thing for me to do was to go to a good picture show and forget all my troubles. Said to take her two little girls along and they'd keep me too busy to worry about any other females."

He paused, took a sup of tea, brushed his lips with the back of his old withered musician's hand.

"So we did and they did," he went on. "We stayed and we stayed and we stayed. And we had hamburgers and hot dogs and popcorn and peanuts and when I left, they gave me this to give to you."

A second sly wink my way intrigued me as much as her. She opened the package and extracted a large flashy birthday card, which said:

"Dear Grandpa: Make Gramps go to bed without any supper. He's so full now he can't button his vest. And his next birthday you come along and we'll all go to the picture show. And you send our daddy home. You've had him all day and we want him now."

Love, Emma,
Joan X her mark
Ann X her mark

My wife! My daughters aged 4 and 2 respectively.

"Why you old fool," Mother said to Father. "You old rascal! It is your birthday. You're 77 years old today—and you still bully your wife."

I hurried home to my own family.

Rodriguez Out-Duels Palmer

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Chi Chi Rodriguez, the long-driving, 120-pound Puerto Rican, has an answer for everything.

After winning top prize of 11,000 in the Western Open, he cracked:

"When I was a kid fertilizing sugar cane, I never thought I would have this much in my whole life."

"I remember when I first started playing on the golf tour. I went around in Pete Cooper's car. When we stopped for gas, I would pretend I was asleep in the back seat. When the check came in a restaurant, I would sneak away to the men's room. Pete did a lot for me. He changed my grip and it changed my whole golf game."

"Also, I have tremendous respect for Ed Dudley. He hired me as assistant pro at Dorado Beach (in Puerto Rico). He gave me the down payment for a home, and my first car. He was a great man."

Cooper is a veteran pro now in Sorrento, Fla. Dudley died last October.

Chi Chi, a 28-year-old bachelor who once wanted to make a career as a baseball pitcher, now is head pro at Dorado Beach. His winnings from the Western Open boosted him from ninth to sixth on the PGA earning list with $46,610.

Chi Chi, who constantly jabsbers with his fans — of whom there were plenty among the record 20,600 for a Western Open in Sunday's gallery — won with a closing 36-31 — 67 for a 72-hole total of 268.

He finished two holes ahead of Arnold Palmer, defending champion. They had started the last round in a dead heat for the lead at 201.

Palmer was one-stroke behind with three holes to go. On the 70th, he missed a 10-foot birdie putt that would have squared him.

On the 71st he was over the green on his approach. He went to the cup coming back, but the million more than in 1963, and the highest total ever.

Successor to Ford Frick Considered

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — The baseball brass will begin the long process of picking a commissioner to succeed Ford Frick when the clubowners meet today and Tuesday for their annual summer meetings.

The executive council, including Commissioner Frick, the two league presidents and one owner from each league, is due to set up the procedure to be followed in screening candidates. Frick, 69, has notified the owners he will retire at the end of his term, Sept. 20, 1965.

There is little or no possibility that a new commissioner will be named at this time. Each league probably will set up committees to discuss the matter, with orders to report back to the December meetings.

Among those mentioned prominently in speculation about the job are Joe Cronin, president of the American League; Sen. Kenneth Keating, R-N.Y., and Judge Robert Cannon of Milwaukee.

Warren Giles, president of the National League, who was a leading candidate when Frick was elected in 1951, is 68 and too old to start a seven-year term.

After the executive council meets, the National and American Leagues will convene separately this afternoon. They will meet in a joint session Tuesday morning.

Included on the agenda are requests from the players for no night games on getaway days and no mid-season exhibition games involving night travel.

A suggestion for a free-agent draft, similar to the one conducted by professional football, will be considered. However, it is expected the owners will defer any action for another year to give the current first year rule another try. Clubs now are forced to keep high priced bums ball rolled 25 feet past. He wound up with bogey. He couldn't recover from that even with an 18-foot birdie tap on the 72nd and finished with a 68 for 269.

Sharing third place at 275 were Jack Nicklaus and Don Massengale. Ken Venturi was next at 277. Grouped at 278 were Stan Leonard, Tony Lema, Tom Veoch, Jim Ferrier and Billy Casper.

Willie Mays Sinks Reds by 7 to 5

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Willie Mays personally lifted the San Francisco Giants to two weekend victories, tripling home the only run in Saturday's 1-0 victory over Cincinnati, then collecting four hits for the first time this season as the Giants whipped the Reds 7-5 Sunday.

Not since May when he was hitting above the .400 mark has the $100,000-a-year outfielder put on such an outstanding one-man show as he did Sunday. He slammed his 32nd homer, a double and two singles, drove in three runs, scored two and stole two bases.

Mays, bothered by a heavy cold, was not scheduled to play against the Mets at New York last Wednesday. But with Manager Al Dark under fire and his job threatened, Mays asked to be inserted in the lineup.

"I shouldn't be playing," he said, "but I've got to help that man."

That was the last he said on the subject.

Since then, in four games, he's hit three homers, driven in six runs and collected eight hits in 17 at-bats.

Mays' latest efforts kept the Giants 2½ games behind the National League leading Philadelphia Phillies, who whipped New York 6-0 behind Jim Bunning's five-hit pitching and a two-run homer by former Met Frank Thomas.

In other games, Jim Pagliaroni's two-run homer gave Pittsburgh a 2-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs, Denny Lemaster pitched a four-hitter as Milwaukee defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-2 and Ray Saadecki posted his 13th victory in St. Louis' 8-2 triumph over Houston.

American League leading Baltimore split with the New York Yankees, losing the opener 2-1 before taking the nightcap 4-2 and the second-place Chicago White Sox won 4-1 after dropping the opener to Boston 6-3. Cleveland whipped Minnesota 7-0 before losing the second game 3-1. Detroit swept Kansas City 4-2 and 5-2 and Washington edged the Los Angeles Angels 6-5.

Despite Mays' one-man show, the Giants still needed some brilliant relief work by Billy O'Dell, who came on in the fourth and allowed only two hits over the final 5 1/3 innings, striking out the last four men he faced.

Things also broke right for the Phillies as Thomas, acquired Friday from the Mets, hit a two-run homer in the fourth and rookie Alex Johnson, recalled when Danny Cater was injured, hit his first homer in the eighth, a two-run, pinchhit shot.

That was more than enough for Bunning, who 65 his record to 12-4 with another strong effort. Bunning did not allow a hit until Joe Christopher beat out a bunt with two out in the fifth. He had retired 45 Mets in succession until then, including 27 in his June 21 perfect game.

Pagliaroni's homer and the combined four-hit pitching of Don Schwall and Al McBean got the job done for the Pirates. Schwall allowed only three hits before leaving in the ninth. Pagliaroni's homer tagged Bob Buhl, 12-9, with the loss.

Milwaukee's Lemaster, 12-7, breezed after the Braves jumped on Don Drysdale, 13-11, for four runs in the fourth inning. The key hit was a two-run double by Joe Torre, who later scored on an error by Nate Oliver. Lemaster ended Tommy Davis' hitting streak at 20 games.

Sadecki checked the Colts on seven hits while the Cardinals lashed 15, including three each by Dick Groat and Tom McCarver. The Cardinals clinched it with three unearned runs in the fourth after an error by Walt Bond opened the gates.

East Wins All-Star Grid Game

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Chalk up a victory for the West basketball team. Chalk up a victory for the East football team. Chalk up two victories for balance in the ninth annual Arkansas High School All-Star games.

The smaller but scrappy Rangers hustled their way past the East 80-75 in basketball with Bebo States of Fort Smith, a Johnny - come - lately all - star, showing the way to one of the biggest upsets in the series.

The Planters got vengeance on the gridiron, 27-0. It was no upset that the East won, but the margin of triumph — largest in the series — was not expected.

That gave the West a 6-3 edge in basketball and the East a 5-4 edge in football.

The East edge in height was great, but it still disturbed Ranger Coach Willie Click, who marked up his 42nd straight victory. The first 41 came from the Click-coached Delight Bulldogs.

But on the court, the East's 6-foot-5 Richard Baldwin never got warmed up. Baldwin finished with 16 points, fouling out with 2:03 to play, but he hit only four of 17 field goal attempts. The Planters as a squad put only 23 of 80 attempts in the bucket.

Even so, the height barrier held them out most of the game.

The break came with 4:42 to play. Baldwin hit two free throws to give the East a 64-61 lead. The West's David Self, also 6-foot-5, drove for a basket.

Jerry Heard canned a jump shot and Slates followed with two free throws for a 67-64 West lead.

Baldwin and the West's Donnie Denton traded jump shots. Baldwin fouled out on Self, who hit both free throws to make it 71-66. Slates hit two free throws for a 73-66 lead.

Robbie Robinson of Conway got a free throw for the Planters, but Larry Martindale countered with two for the West and a 75-67 lead. Little Harold Alexander hit a free throw with 44 seconds to play to make the Ranger lead 78-69 — biggest margin of the game — and it was all over but for the scrambling.

Slates wound up with 15 points, Denton with 13. Heard with 12. More important, they stayed with and all but nullified Baldwin and Burk on the backboards.

The football game was publicized as one of the big hitting duels. It was.

The West's Phil Icenhower, Dan Jones, Jim Stone, Jack Cates, Tony Beltrani, Champ Thomas and David Cooper all handed out some walloping licks.

But so did Lynn Greenwell, Bob Haulmark, Buddy Northern, Jerry Michael, Jim Barnes and Gerald Jumper of the East.

In fact, the game looked dead even the first 10 minutes.

The Rangers took the opening kickoff and drove to the East 23 on the running of Mac McLarty, Bill Compton and Cooper. Then the East took over and went to the West 27 on the running of Gordon Norwood, Chuck Skillman and Tommy Larence.

Then the second units came in, and with them—Tommy Dixon. The speedy scabbard carried twice for a first down and two plays later got another one on the West edge.

Dixon got four, Calvin Smith one and fullback William Ketcher bulled into the end zone. Smith converted to make it 7-0 with 1:05 left in the first quarter.

The West second unit could not manage an assault. The third unit came in and this time Fred Welshans of Paragould was the ace in the hole.

The pounding fullback carried six times for 35 yards in a 13-play, 44-yard drive, and he scored on a lunge from the two. Smith converted again and it was 14-0 at halftime.

The lancers took the second half kickoff and went 65 yards in seven plays for a third touchdown. Dixon retuned it 24 yards to the 35. Skillman and Larence moved the ball to the 49. Norwood hit Barnes with a pass to the Ranger 33. Then Norwood and Skillman carried for a first down on the Ranger 21.

On the next play Dixon streaked down the sideline and Norwood lofted a pass to him. Dixon lugged it in and galloped into the endzone. Smith kicked good again with 10:46 left in the third quarter.

The Rangers got in trouble two possessions later and Cooper punted from his endzone to the West 48.

A 15-yard penalty moved the East down to the West 33. Norwood fired again to Dixon, who scampered to the West nine. Skillman hit for two, Larence for four and Norwood peeled off around left end for the touch-

Allen Wins in Canada Bowling

MONTREAL (AP) — Bill Allen of Orlando, Fla., staved off a determined last-game effort by Jack Blondillo of Houston, Tex., and won the $24,000 Canadian Open Bowling Tournament by four pins Sunday night.
Allen's 16-game total of 8,338 brought him $3,000 and made him a champion.

Smith's kick was wide. The East had gone 48 yards on five plays and the scoring was over. The West, after its first drive faltered, retired from offensive thrusts. Travis Giles almost put the Rangers back in the game with a 61-yard return to the endzone with an intercepted pass, but penalties nullified the play. The outstanding players of the game will be announced next Sunday. Slates' outstanding playmaking and shooting gives him the inside track, but Dixon and Baldwin are contenders.

Dixon, Welshans and a host of other East backs could qualify for the football prize, along with a dozen linemen.
The attendance estimates for the basketball game was about 5,000 and the football game 14,000.

Lowly Pro Gridders Heading Up

By TED MEIER

The San Francisco 49ers, the Los Angeles Rams and the Kansas City Chiefs, the have-not teams of 1964 in professional football.

That appears to be one of the first conclusions that could be drawn from the opening of the exhibition season that drew 282,441 fans to 10 games, seven Saturday night and three Sunday afternoon. The six National League games drew 219,116 and the four American League games 63,325.

The 49ers, who had their worst season in 1963, scored an easy 28-7 victory over the Cleveland Browns before 27,404 Sunday at San Francisco. Quarterback John Brodie, injured most of last season, completed 15 of 25 passes for 188 yards and one touchdown.

Roman Gabriel, who is expected to lead the Rams back to title contention in the NFL, sparked the Rams to a 17-6 triumph over the Dallas Cowboys before 57,450 at Los Angeles. He completed 16 of 26 passes for 159 and set up both Ram touchdowns.

Kansas City, the 1963 flop of the year in the AFL after winning the championship in 1962, whipped the Oakland Raiders 21-14 before 11,118 at Oakland. The passing of Len Dawson and Eddie Wilson sparked the Chiefs to an early lead and their strong defense thwarted a late Oakland threat.

The largest crowd, an estimated 65,000, turned out at New Orleans where the St. Louis Cardinals upset the Green Bay Packers 20-7. Star back Paul Hornung, back in action after a year's suspension for betting on hits in the inning and took the loss. Pinch runner Claude Osteen scored the winning run from third on a fly out when Bob Rodgers dropped Lou Clinton's perfect throw to the plate.
